JAPANESE

Year Abroad Quick Information Sheet

Academic Year 2023-2024

Year Abroad Co-ordinator – Ms Junko Hagiwara

HOST INSTITUTION	KOBE UNIVERSITY
CONTACT DETAILS	The Faculty of Letters,
	KOBE UNIVERSITY
	Phone:+81-78-803-5595
	Fax :+81-78-803-5589
	E-mail: lkyomu@lit.kobe-u.ac.jp
	Office Hours: Monday-Friday 8:30AM to 5:00PM
COURSE NAME AND STUCTURE	Kobe Oxford Japanese Studies Program made up of three parts: the Japanese Language Programme, the specialised courses offered by the Faculty of Letters, and the extra curriculum activities (KOJSP events).
DURATION	3 TERMS
TERM DATES	• 1 st of October to first Friday of August
	• Autumn semester: 1 st of October to end of February
	• Spring semester: 1 st week of April to first week of August
IMPORTANT DEADLINES (PAPERWORK)	KOJSP (Kobe University) Application: End of March
	Application for Certificate of Eligibility: End of April
IMPORTANT DATES/DEADLINES WHILE	Exact dates vary from year to year.
ABROAD	1st Semester: 1 st Monday of October(2 nd of October 2023) to Last week of February
VISA APPLICATION INFORMATION	2 nd Semester: 1 st week of April to 1 st week of August. Application for Certificate of Eligibility (in order to
VISA APPLICATION INFORMATION	apply Visa): End of April
ACCOMMODATION	Students are able to live in Kobe University's hall of
ACCOMMODATION	residence (named Kokuiryo).
	Address:
	1-1 Rokkodai-cho,
	Nada-ku,
	Kobe
	657-8501 JAPAN
	Tel : +44- 078-803-5595
	Students will have received further information regarding this in briefing sessions with the host university.

YEAR ABROAD CO-ORDINATOR DETAILS	Ms Junko Hagiwara
TEAK ABROAD CO-ORDINATOR DETAILS	junko.hagiwara@ames.ox.ac.uk
	Phone number: +44 (0)1865 278220
CONTACTS IN HOST INSTITUTION	SEE ABOVE
FCO WEBSITE	Japan travel advice - GOV.UK (www.gov.uk)
OTHER USEFUL CONTACTS	BRITISH EMBASSY - If you're abroad and you need emergency help from the UK government
	British Consulate General Osaka - GOV.UK
	(www.gov.uk)
	British Embassy Tokyo - GOV.UK
	(www.gov.uk)
ASSESSMENTS WHILE ABROAD	Revision test: at the end of each term
	Kanji test: every week
FORMS OF CONTACT AVAILABLE	All forms of contact e.g. Whatsapp are available.
	Students will usually be contacted by email by the YA
	Co-ordinator.
	Depending on the mobile contract, English mobile phone can be used without changing sim card (this would normally include charges, so it would be better to get a Japanese sim card).
WHEN TO EXPECT VISITS FROM FACULTY	In August (to attend the completion ceremony)
CULTURAL/SOCIAL ETIQUETTES (THINGS	There are smaller rules, such as removing shoes when
TO BE AWARE OF, WHAT TO AVOID)	visiting shrines, temples and private homes, but not much different from British rules and etiquette.
	There are no particularly strict religious rules.
HEALTH/MEDICATION	If you're travelling with prescription or over-the-counter medicine, read this guidance from NaTHNaC on best practice when travelling with medicines . For further information on the legal status of a specific medicine, you'll need to contact the embassy, high commission or consulate of the country or territory commission or consulate of the country or territory you're travelling to.
	commission or consulate of the country or territory you're travelling to. You may also want to check the Japanese Ministry of
	 commission or consulate of the country or territory you're travelling to. You may also want to check the Japanese Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare webpages on advice if
	commission or consulate of the country or territory you're travelling to. You may also want to check the Japanese Ministry of
	commission or consulate of the country or territory you're travelling to. You may also want to check the Japanese Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare webpages on advice if you bring medicine into Japan , a general Q&A as well
	commission or consulate of the country or territory you're travelling to. You may also want to check the Japanese Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare webpages on advice if you bring medicine into Japan , a general Q&A as well
	commission or consulate of the country or territory you're travelling to. You may also want to check the Japanese Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare webpages on advice if you bring medicine into Japan , a general Q&A as well as a list of banned items .
	 commission or consulate of the country or territory you're travelling to. You may also want to check the Japanese Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare webpages on advice if you bring medicine into Japan, a general Q&A as well as a list of banned items. If you need emergency medical assistance during your trip, dial 119 and ask for an ambulance. You should contact your insurance/medical assistance
	 commission or consulate of the country or territory you're travelling to. You may also want to check the Japanese Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare webpages on advice if you bring medicine into Japan, a general Q&A as well as a list of banned items. If you need emergency medical assistance during your trip, dial 119 and ask for an ambulance. You should contact your insurance/medical assistance company promptly if you are referred to a medical
	 commission or consulate of the country or territory you're travelling to. You may also want to check the Japanese Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare webpages on advice if you bring medicine into Japan, a general Q&A as well as a list of banned items. If you need emergency medical assistance during your trip, dial 119 and ask for an ambulance. You should contact your insurance/medical assistance company promptly if you are referred to a medical facility for treatment.
	 commission or consulate of the country or territory you're travelling to. You may also want to check the Japanese Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare webpages on advice if you bring medicine into Japan, a general Q&A as well as a list of banned items. If you need emergency medical assistance during your trip, dial 119 and ask for an ambulance. You should contact your insurance/medical assistance company promptly if you are referred to a medical facility for treatment. Medical facilities are good, but the cost of treatment
	 commission or consulate of the country or territory you're travelling to. You may also want to check the Japanese Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare webpages on advice if you bring medicine into Japan, a general Q&A as well as a list of banned items. If you need emergency medical assistance during your trip, dial 119 and ask for an ambulance. You should contact your insurance/medical assistance company promptly if you are referred to a medical facility for treatment. Medical facilities are good, but the cost of treatment is high. Hospitals and clinics are well equipped and
	 commission or consulate of the country or territory you're travelling to. You may also want to check the Japanese Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare webpages on advice if you bring medicine into Japan, a general Q&A as well as a list of banned items. If you need emergency medical assistance during your trip, dial 119 and ask for an ambulance. You should contact your insurance/medical assistance company promptly if you are referred to a medical facility for treatment. Medical facilities are good, but the cost of treatment is high. Hospitals and clinics are well equipped and staff highly trained. There are very few British doctors
	 commission or consulate of the country or territory you're travelling to. You may also want to check the Japanese Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare webpages on advice if you bring medicine into Japan, a general Q&A as well as a list of banned items. If you need emergency medical assistance during your trip, dial 119 and ask for an ambulance. You should contact your insurance/medical assistance company promptly if you are referred to a medical facility for treatment. Medical facilities are good, but the cost of treatment is high. Hospitals and clinics are well equipped and staff highly trained. There are very few British doctors practising in Japan, but some Japanese doctors may
	 commission or consulate of the country or territory you're travelling to. You may also want to check the Japanese Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare webpages on advice if you bring medicine into Japan, a general Q&A as well as a list of banned items. If you need emergency medical assistance during your trip, dial 119 and ask for an ambulance. You should contact your insurance/medical assistance company promptly if you are referred to a medical facility for treatment. Medical facilities are good, but the cost of treatment is high. Hospitals and clinics are well equipped and staff highly trained. There are very few British doctors practising in Japan, but some Japanese doctors may speak English. You will be expected to pay the whole
	 commission or consulate of the country or territory you're travelling to. You may also want to check the Japanese Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare webpages on advice if you bring medicine into Japan, a general Q&A as well as a list of banned items. If you need emergency medical assistance during your trip, dial 119 and ask for an ambulance. You should contact your insurance/medical assistance company promptly if you are referred to a medical facility for treatment. Medical facilities are good, but the cost of treatment is high. Hospitals and clinics are well equipped and staff highly trained. There are very few British doctors practising in Japan, but some Japanese doctors may speak English. You will be expected to pay the whole cost of any treatment you receive and there have
	 commission or consulate of the country or territory you're travelling to. You may also want to check the Japanese Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare webpages on advice if you bring medicine into Japan, a general Q&A as well as a list of banned items. If you need emergency medical assistance during your trip, dial 119 and ask for an ambulance. You should contact your insurance/medical assistance company promptly if you are referred to a medical facility for treatment. Medical facilities are good, but the cost of treatment is high. Hospitals and clinics are well equipped and staff highly trained. There are very few British doctors practising in Japan, but some Japanese doctors may speak English. You will be expected to pay the whole cost of any treatment you receive and there have been cases where treatment has been delayed whilst
	 commission or consulate of the country or territory you're travelling to. You may also want to check the Japanese Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare webpages on advice if you bring medicine into Japan, a general Q&A as well as a list of banned items. If you need emergency medical assistance during your trip, dial 119 and ask for an ambulance. You should contact your insurance/medical assistance company promptly if you are referred to a medical facility for treatment. Medical facilities are good, but the cost of treatment is high. Hospitals and clinics are well equipped and staff highly trained. There are very few British doctors practising in Japan, but some Japanese doctors may speak English. You will be expected to pay the whole cost of any treatment you receive and there have

health insurance that covers pre-existing conditions and accessible funds to cover the cost of any medical treatment abroad and repatriation (PLEASE NOTE: University travel insurance covers medical costs that you may incur while you are away, be it an emergency or if you are ill and need to see a doctor.
It does not cover pre-existing medical conditions.
You are advised to speak to your GP for advice and may be required to take out additional medical insurance yourself. Private Health insurance is not covered under the University Health insurance - treatment for existing chronic illness is not covered by the university's insurance and anyone with an underlying health condition should take out additional health insurance.
Residents in Japan will be required to enrol in either Employee or National Health Insurance.